

Black History Month Film Series: The Vernon Johns Story

Part I: Wednesday, February 20, 2013

Part II: Thursday, February 21, 2013

1:00pm-2:00pm

FPB N3437 B&C

James Earl Jones stars as controversial pastor Vernon Johns, one of the earliest voices of civil rights. In 1948, Johns served as the outspoken spiritual leader of the Dexter Avenue Baptist Church in Montgomery, Alabama. Incensed at the racial injustice that pervaded the South, he was determined to fight for equality for all African Americans. His refusal to accept segregation incited anger amongst local law enforcement and caused his family to fear for their lives.

All persons are welcome to showing

A light lunch will be served to all viewing Local 12 members

